

Learner Driver Code of Conduct

All TAC L2P Program learner drivers should understand and agree to behave in accordance with the following Code of Conduct. Any violation of this contract may result in immediate exit from the program.

Participation in this program is a privilege, not an entitlement, and our mentors are trained volunteers that give up their time and expect a high level of commitment from learners.

In choosing to participate in the TAC L2P Program I agree to:		Agreed?
1	Follow all rules, guidelines and Code of Conduct as outlined to me by the L2P Coordinator.	<input type="checkbox"/>
2	Treat all people with dignity and respect while participating in L2P.	<input type="checkbox"/>
3	Never consume alcohol, tobacco or controlled substances while taking part in a driving lesson, and never arrive for a driving session when either under the influence of alcohol or other drugs or consumed in the previous 24 hours.	<input type="checkbox"/>
4	Not socialise or have any dealings with mentors outside official L2P sessions.	<input type="checkbox"/>
5	Notify the L2P Coordinator if I have any changes in address, phone number, or employment status.	<input type="checkbox"/>
6	Notify the L2P Coordinator if I am experiencing any concerns with my mentor, or with my participation in the program.	<input type="checkbox"/>
7	Remain committed to the driving program, always being punctual and ready to participate in sessions.	<input type="checkbox"/>
8	Be available for contact and respond to messages/calls from my mentor and coordinator	<input type="checkbox"/>
9	Notify the mentor and L2P Coordinator at least 24 hours before my scheduled session if I am unable to attend. If a professional driving instructor lesson is cancelled with too short notice, the learner will forfeit the lesson.	<input type="checkbox"/>
