Junction Support Services (JSS) is committed to social change and has been working to reduce poverty and homelessness in communities in North East Victoria since 1989.

The organisation is a not for profit community service organisation providing support to children, young people, single adults and families who are disadvantaged through poverty, homelessness, family violence, mental ill health, and drug and alcohol addiction.

Our Values

Everything we do is underpinned by our core values:

- Equity, Access & Diversity
- Innovation
- Collaboration

We acknowledge the support of the Victorian Government

Our values are embedded in our organisation and form the basis of our strategic and business planning, recruitment processes, training and leadership development.

Our employees proudly provide quality services to our clients in a flexible, honest, fair and confidential manner.

The Ovens Murray Early Help Family Services program (EHFS) is a partnership between Junction, the Australian Childhood Foundation and universal services which delivers an integrated suite of services aimed at providing early help to families, supporting children's wellbeing, promoting parent-child attachment through individualised, flexible and therapeutic service delivery.

The Family Coach will form part of the Early Help Family Services team. The Family Coach will be responsible for providing early support for children aged 0-12 years and their families who present with emerging needs and vulnerabilities. Family Coaches will deliver a range of evidence based group work programs with parents and carers which build the skills and confidence of parents to manage the day to day demands of raising healthy and thriving children. Family Coaches will also provide individualised support to families and help connect them to the services they need. Each family will undergo an assessment of their needs to determine the level of support required.

The role will operate largely on an outreach basis and work closely with local universal services including schools, early years providers, councils and other service providers. The EHFS Program will be co-located between Junction and universal services. To enable the participation of families unable to receive a service during business hours, a flexible approach to service delivery is adopted. This involves family support being provided between the hours of 7am-7pm and inclusive of weekends (where required).

Service Objectives:

1. Improve the quality of parent child interactions.
2. Increase parental confidence and competence to respond positively to parenting challenges.
3. Increase awareness of parent's self-care.
4. Improve children's participation in MCH, kindergarten, and school.
5. Increase the social connection of parents e.g. participation in peer support groups.
6. Increase the confidence of universal staff to support families with emerging needs.
