Junction is a not-for-profit organisation who has been changing lives since 1989. We support people within our whole community – from infants who are part of our supporting young parent’s program, to the children and adults who receive counselling for trauma such as family violence. From the young people we care for in our Residential Care houses, to the adults of all ages who we support in response to homelessness and family violence.

Our purpose and vision are communities without disadvantage through supporting individuals and families to achieve their full potential. Our values are embedded in all that we do. They form the basis of our strategic and business planning, recruitment processes, training and leadership development. These are inclusive of:

- Inclusion & Diversity
- Integrity
- Innovation
- Collaboration
- Respect

We ensure our staff treat people as individuals and promote and encourage decision-making and community involvement across our service areas. Our employees proudly provide quality services to support our community and clients in a flexible, honest, fair and confidential manner.

Junction Support Services manages three Residential Care Houses, located in Moe and Traralgon. All houses are operated on a shift work basis, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. The Residential Care houses provide medium to long-term accommodation for young people who are on child protective orders through the Department of Families Fairness and Housing (DFFH).

Residential Care Youth Workers contribute and collaborate with the entire team who are supporting a young person. This is to assist the young person in achieving their goals, as determined through individual Care and Placement Plans. This requires Residential Care Youth Workers to provide an appropriate response and level of assistance to each young person by ensuring that the day-to-day arrangements required to meet each young person's goals are carried out in a safe and secure living environment.

Position Objective:

1. Support all young people in achieving their Individual Care and Placement Plan/Support Plan goals.
2. Provide a safe, caring, homelike, and secure residential living environment for the young people.
3. Role model appropriate and acceptable behaviour for young people at all times.
4. Collaborate with and contribute to the Continued Care Team.
